

Embassy of the United States of America

Beirut, Lebanon
July 28, 2008

Reverend Father Walid Moussa
President
Notre Dame University
Louaize, Lebanon

Dear Father Moussa:

I am pleased to inform you that Dr. Ziad Fahd, Assistant Professor, Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences at Notre Dame University, has been awarded a grant to participate in the Fulbright Interfaith Community Action Program. The Fulbright program is one of the U.S. Government's most prestigious scholarships. The U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs funds this award, which is administered by the Council for International Exchange of Scholars.

The Fulbright Interfaith Community Action Program is designed to promote the importance of interfaith cooperation and to facilitate community action among diverse religious groups worldwide. The program will take place from mid-September to mid-December 2008.

The scholars will participate in four components of the program: conference at Temple University; host institution stay; Iliff School of Theology Seminar and Washington, D.C. Colloquium.

I take this opportunity to congratulate both Dr. Fahd and Notre Dame University on this award. I hope that the Fulbright experience will be highly rewarding for him and your university.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Richard C. Michaels', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Richard C. Michaels
Cultural Attaché